This lakefront estate cabin sits nestled on a double lot in Lake Tahoe's best kept secret: Rubicon Bay. This quiet, intimate community only 13 minutes north of Emerald Bay boasts spectacular views, crystalline turquoise waters, white sandy beaches, and a rare calm found in few spots on the lake. Because it is sheltered and not at the foot of a canyon like Meeks and Hurricane Bays, it is warm, calm and glassy on days when most of the lake is white-capping. The charming cabin can be a perfect rustic mountain retreat for those who want to experience immediate relaxation the day they set foot in their new Tahoe home.
