You will love the attention to detail in this custom built luxury home by Sasser construction. The exterior has elegant stone accents, a level yard that is nicely landscaped and some great back yard privacy.

As you enter the two story foyer with hardwood floors the formal living room is on the left. It has French doors with sidelights and transoms and would make a great home office. The dining room is on the right and is big enough for large family holiday gatherings and has plenty of wall space for furniture. To the left rear of the home is a guest bedroom with a nice closet and next to the first floor full bathroom.

The family room is open to the kitchen and has a warm gas fireplace flanked by built in book shelves. The kitchen has all the quality finishes you would expect in a home of this caliber. Granite counter tops, stainless appliances, gas cook top and plenty of cabinet storage and counter space.

The kitchen nook has an exit rear door to the first...
