Welcome to 340 52nd Street in the historic Huntington Heights neighborhood of Newport News. This classic turn of the century craftsman colonial has beautiful hardwood floors and original trim. The deep front porch has plenty of room for a porch swing and other furniture and is the perfect place to enjoy a cup of coffee and meet the neighbors on the tree lined sidewalk. The exterior has been updated with low maintenance vinyl siding and windows.

As you enter the home the family room with brick fireplace is in front of you and is accented with wood floors. There are tall windows that flood the family room with plenty of natural light. Straight back is the updated kitchen with elegant granite counter tops, stainless steel appliances, ceramic tile floors and a large walk in pantry. To the right of the kitchen is a large dining room with hardwood floors, pretty trim and nice wall space for furniture placement. The utility room is on the back of the home and leads out t...
