You will love the light bright and open floor plan of this freshened transitional in a quiet cul-de-sac in Gatling Pointe. Soaring ceilings, tall windows and a kitchen open to the family room layout make this a great home for entertaining.

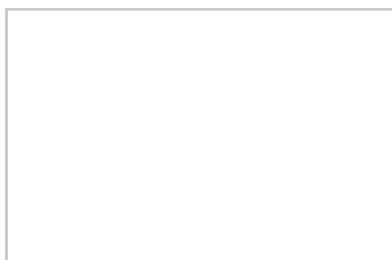

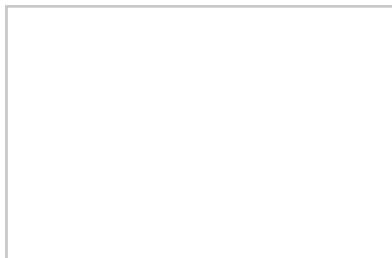

As you enter the home you are greeted by a dramatic two story entry foyer with turned staircase. The formal living room is on the front of the home with large windows and is open to the formal dining room.

Straight ahead down the center hall brings you to the kitchen open to the family room on the back of the home. The kitchen has a center island and plenty of counter top space for food preparation. Ample cabinets and a pantry allow for lots of storage.

Doors from the breakfast nook lead to the deck which looks over a large, flat, private back yard. Plenty big enough to throw a football or baseball and for entertaining.
