You will love this expansive transitional plan with a place for everything. As you enter the foyer the formal dining room is on the right side and has fresh paint and a bay window. It has great wall space for furniture placement and is big enough for a generous sized table.

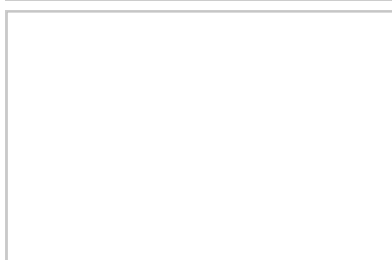

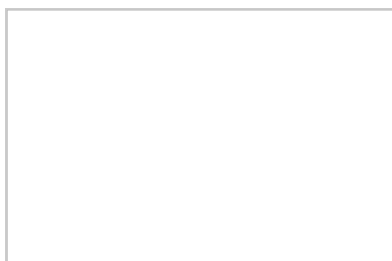

On the back left is a private office on the first floor that has doors that lead onto a covered porch and back yard for some much needed work breaks for fresh air.

The back of the home has a large family room with vaulted ceiling and a wall of glass letting in plenty of natural light. The fireplace is in the corner with wiring for your entertainment center above.

The kitchen is in the center of the home and has high ceilings and tall cabinets. Lots of counter top space to food preparation and ample cabinets for storage.

On the back right side of the home and through an arched entry way is the first floo...
