You will love the warmth and charm of this classic brick cape with remodeled bathrooms and updated kitchen.

As you enter the hardwood foyer you have an elegant hardwood stair case and center hall with closet. The large family room is to the right and features an all brick fireplace that has been fitted for gas logs and plenty of windows for lots of light. A side door off this room brings you to a covered porch ideal for relaxing.

To the left of the foyer and through an arched entranceway, is the formal dining room also with hardwood floors. There is ample wall space here for a china cabinet and hutch and plenty of space for entertaining during the holidays.

Beyond the dining is the eat in kitchen with an angled walk out bay window. There is plenty of counter space for food preparation and lots of cabinets for storage. The stainless sink is especially large and has a goose neck faucet. There is a built in microwave mounted over the gas range and cook top. Of...
