You will love the quiet setting of this traditional colonial with modern appeal and stunning water views.

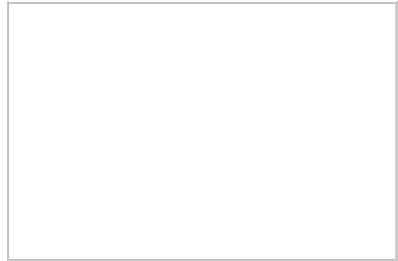

As you approach the front door the front porch runs across the width of the home and is made of low maintenance composite materials. It is large enough to accommodate rockers and a porch swing and makes a great place to enjoy the view landscaping out front.

You enter the front door into the foyer and center hall with a coat closet. The formal dining room is on the right and has crown molding, chair rail, hardwood floors and a bay window with a view of Moone Creek. There are lots of windows for light and good wall space for furniture placement.

The office is to the left of the foyer and it too has crown molding chair rail and wood floors. It is plenty big to accommodate a desk, credenza and shelves.

The formal living room sits behind the dining room and has a real brick fireplace with gas logs. The windows here are a water view and there are Frenc...
