Welcome to 104 Mariners Circle in the beautiful, award winning community of Gatling Point. This brick ranch home sits on a waterfront lot in a quiet cul-de-sac and has stunning sunsets over Moone Creek.

As you enter the elegant front door with sidelights, the open floor plan gives you a full view through the home from the ceramic tile foyer to the windows on the back of the home with a view.

The formal dining room is on the right, has hardwood floors, and ample wall space for a china cabinet.

Straight ahead is the family room with soaring ceilings, a wet bar for entertaining and a warm gas fireplace for cold days.

To the right of the family room is the eat in kitchen. It has ceramic tile floors, lots counter top space for food preparation and plenty of cabinet storage. There is a built in wall oven and the cook top is in the island. The eating area has windows to allow for a view from here too, and an exit door get you quick access to the expansive ...
