Welcome to 851 Wilderness Way in the quiet neighborhood of Fawn Lake. This charming four bedroom home sits on a large home site in a quiet cul-de-sac.

The first thing you will notice on the out side is the pride in ownership the home owner takes. The front yard is nicely manicured and you would be hard pressed to find a weed in the grass. There is a covered front stoop and front door with sidelights.

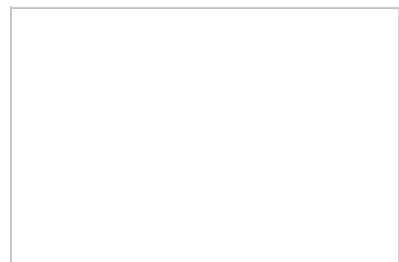

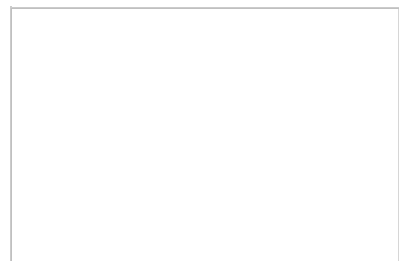

As you enter the foyer, you will see a turned stair case off of the center hall and away from the front door. This really opens up the foyer and creates an open feel.

The formal living room is to the right of the foyer. It has plenty of natural light from big windows and good wall space for furniture placement. It is currently used as a home office.

The formal dining is to the left and also has plenty of light and direct access to the kitchen.

On the back of the home is the more casual space. The family room sits behind the turned stair case and h...
