You are going to love this all one level low maintenance condominium with two car garage. You enter into a family room with fireplace and lots of windows. This area has hardwood floors and is open to the formal dining room also with hardwood. The eat in kitchen is on the back of the home and features granite counter tops, updated appliances and ceramic tile floor and back splash. Off the back of the kitchen is a comfortable screened porch that looks over a lovely garden. This floor plan has been modified to make an especially large master bedroom with a sitting area with fireplace. There is ample closet space for storage. The sitting area could also work as a home office. There is another guest room up front providing the master bedroom with lots of privacy. Association fees includes most all exterior maintenance, trash removal, and access for the owners and their children or grand children to all the amenities of Eagle Harbor including the pool, water park, putt putt, and more...
