Large open contemporary on over 2 acres of land bordering Winall Creek that leads out to Chuckatuck Creek. Launch a canoe, Kayak, Jonboat, or just fish from your back yard. This home is owned by a local artist and author, and has plenty of charm and the feeling of peace and quiet of a cabin in the woods. Beautiful views and lots of space for the whole family. There is a large family room with corner wood burning brick fireplace, a two story library with fireplace, and a screened porch to relax and see nature in the back yard. The yard is plenty big to toss a football or baseball and has easy access to fishing. There are lots of azaleas and other flowering bushes and no shortage of deer, turkey and an occasional fox. This home is owned by local artist and author Michael Podesta. He is a Nationally known Christian graphic designer. His work is sold in gift shops and Christian book stores, as well as through his gallery in Eclipse Virginia and catalog.
