What a wonderful opportunity to own a unique building in Historic Downtown Smithfield. Let your imagination run wild with the possibilities for this property. A restaurant? A Brewery? (You will burn in hell, but it would be cool) A bed and breakfast? A theater or music venue? A retail store? Coffee Shop? Wedding Venue? Bring your ideas and your architect. Certain improvements will qualify for historical tax credits. Walk to all things in downtown Smithfield including the farmers market, shops, and more. The Hill Street Baptist Church was originally built in 1832. A 5000 square foot building with theater style seating and balcony area. This historic site was where the Confederate Army emerged onto South Church Street and pushed the Union soldiers back down Wharf Hill to the Pagan river and onto their gunboat at the battle of Smithfield in February of 1864. The heating and cooling systems and bathrooms have had recent upgrades.
