50 Laurelcrest Ln boasts some of the best views you can find in the upstate. Situated in the heart of Cherokee Valley's well-renown golf course, this home has season water views of the lake across the street, and stunning mountain views in the back. It is hard to believe with the amount of serenity this property has that you are only 30 minutes from downtown Greenville and less than an hour away from Asheville. You are also nearby to paths that take you around the golf course, making it easy to do daily walks. This stunning property is move-in ready featuring brand new flooring, and gorgeous custom wood floors. It has even recently had the exterior painted. It has a main-level master suite with two sizable walk-in closets. It leads directly out to the patio to enjoy the views. The kitchen features updated appliances, and counter tops. There are many great homes in Cherokee Valley but very few with the views of this one, especially at this price. Call or text William Ray for ...
