300 Pinnacle Peak lane is your own little slice of heaven nestled within the natural beauty of Western North Carolina.

Custom designed with detail in mind, and lovingly maintained, this house features everything you need to feel at home.

Relaxation is a priority with heated master bathroom floors and garden tub; a screened-in sun room overlooking the magnificent garden and water features; and a mini-deck hidden among the trees to sit and relax on those warm summer nights.

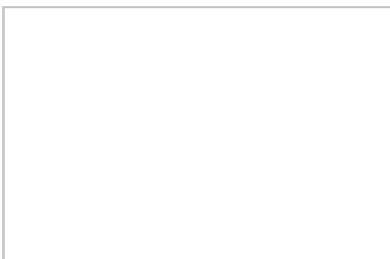

Entertaining will be a breeze with the spacious open plan living room and kitchen, complete with bar area, and the extravagant dining room.

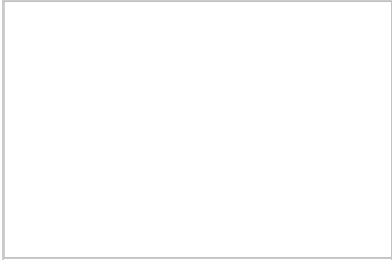

An outdoor enthusiasts dream, you can meander through nature on the paths through the trees, sit and listen to the birds next to the babbling water features, or play fetch with your four legged friend on the lawn.

This house truly has everything you need to call it home.

- The spacious kitchen features beautiful granite counter tops, and soft close cabinets.
- The large kitchen island has a built in sit-up bar, and top of the line induction stove top.
- Bright and inviting, the living room features sliding glass doors opening up onto the deck and garden.
- The dining room nestled within a large bay window, has extravagant tray ceilings with elegant recessed lighting.
- The fully finished basement is currently a rec room, but you could make it a second living space, workshop, library or craft area. The possibilities are endless!
- The large master bedroom features a floor to ceiling window overlooking the gardens.
- The master bathroom is a showstopper. Heated floors, separate his-and-hers vanities, a huge soaking tub and walk-in shower.
- Two additional bedrooms plus bonus rooms give this home so many possibilities.
