You are going to love this brick front transitional on a huge lot with a private fenced back yard. The owner is a master gardener and has a greenhouse in the back yard. It truly is a stunning setting. Enter into an elegant two story, ceramic tile, foyer. The formal living and dining rooms have hardwood floors and tall windows. The two story family room is on the back of the home and has a wall of glass to see the pretty back yard. There is a bedroom with a full bath on the first level which works well for an office, guest room or in-law suite. The eat in kitchen is generous in size, has plenty of counter space for food preparation and lots of cabinet storage. There is access off the breakfast nook to the screened porch and down to the brick patio. The master bedroom includes a sitting area and beautiful five piece bath. There is no shortage of storage throughout this home.
