This is a beautiful home that is walking distance to shopping, restaurants and commuter options. Situated on a dead end street and just a quick stroll to the community pool, your new home has all the benefits of a home in town without being crowded. The pictures show an open floor plan and wonderfully sized rooms, and once inside you will find it cozy and accommodating to almost any life style. As if there is not enough room, the owners had a sun room constructed that is still useable year round. Want more play space? You are close to tot lots, and plenty of recreational fields. Plus, there are plenty of options if boating or fishing is your pleasure. Come and see what your new home is like!
