929 Cheltenham: Big Sur Meets Santa Barbara Contemporary

Picture an earthy palette of wood, Saltillo tile and an abundance of glass perched high on a Mission Canyon hillside. Take in the majestic view of the ocean & islands and the green lushness of Santa Barbara creating the effect of a vibrantly alive landscape painting that graces every room in the house. This warm contemporary 2 bedroom/2 1/2 bath home was designed to enjoy that stunning view equally from inside to outside, with a full-length wood deck in front leading to a large entertainment deck and a covered outdoor living room.

A vaulted, open-beam ceiling and floor-to-ceiling walls of glass on three sides give the living room a soaring spaciousness, while an open-step wood staircase to the 2nd floor adds to the visual sense of elevation. Wide-plank oak floors and a gas fireplace with marble hearth and wood mantel add a note of coziness, making this room a perfect place to relax and meditate on the view. Never leavi...
