This well-planned one-story home encompasses your every wish. The Savannah FL offers space that is private, yet flexible, and usable. The exterior of home can be Mediterranean inspired or classically designed.

Located in the heart of the ultra-desirable Seminole County in Oviedo, Hideaway Cove is a private enclave of executive style and single family homes ranging from 2,300 to 4,889 square feet. Tucked away in a quiet, natural setting, the community backs to the Little Econ protected wetlands and nearly every homesite backs to woodlands for a luxurious sense of privacy. Although it seems like a little oasis, the development is actually well connected with 408, 417, and the I-4 corridor just minutes away, making it easy to commute to nearby University of Central Florida and downtown Orlando. Students will love the location since it means they'll be part of the award-winning Seminole County School District—one of the finest in the state.
