Bring your horses to this turnkey Rancho de Bosque gem, only 20 minutes to Santa Fe. The meticulously well maintained home, with amazing views is the only allowed horse property in the neighborhood. The vintage barn has been fully restored with new electric, lighting, roofing, paint, cement slab (in 200 bale capacity hay storage room), pipe rail fencing, rubber mats, and new footing in arena. The front courtyard boasts herb and wildflower garden, cold frame, butterfly bushes and straw bale wall, for warmth and privacy. The covered back portal faces the barn, with views of the beautiful Sangre de Cristo Mts. Also included are rain barrels, 3400 gal. underground catchment system with new pump, in addition the development is on a gray water system which recycles water for irrigation. This 2.6 acre property is located across the greenbelt from several large horse barns offering instruction in dressage, western and english riding, and has direct access to equestrian trails.
