Spacious and bright townhome near downtown Carpinteria! This two-bedroom condo is located just minutes to the white sandy shores of Carpinteria State Beach, and is within walking distance to Linden Avenue's delightful cafes, galleries, and shops. This two-story, end-unit condominium boasts wood floors in the living room, a sliding glass door, and a floor-to-ceiling window that takes advantage of the natural light. The living-room balcony overlooks sycamore trees and nearby Carpinteria creek. Upstairs are two bedrooms (one an open loft) and a second full bath. There's a secure storage closet outside the front door, and a nearby laundry room.

Singing Springs homeowners association includes covered parking, a swimming pool, spa, club house, dog park, and beautiful creekside gardens. The association allows renters, so this property would be a valuable purchase for a savvy investor.

Rarely can you find such a fantastic investment in this charming, small-town, California beach community.
