You'll know this is a very special property as you drive through the Stone and stucco gated entry and past the Texas-shaped duck pond. The circular driveway is inviting to your guests and leads to the front door entry and the gated pool entrance. You'll be delighted by the watermill feature and the family-sized gunite pool and spa with multilevel deck and pool house, complete with game room and full bathroom. This unique home has been professionally updated with upscale materials and designer details while keeping the best of the original custom features that give this home the look and feel of a luxury lodge and retreat. All this plus, a large barn, stables, additional outbuildings, paddocks and 2 ponds on over 30 acres. Don't miss this jewel less than an hour from Dallas and minutes to Greenville with all its amenities.
